

K S 1 and K S 2 Kings and Knights

Five hundred years of living history

Guided tour of St George's Chapel

Links to History, Art & Design, Religious Education

Completed during the reign of Henry VIII, who is one of ten kings buried here, St George's Chapel has a wealth of educational interest for primary school children.

On this tour, they learn about the history of the Order of the Garter and see the banners of the present-day Knights of the Order; discover the location of the royal tombs and hear stories about some of their occupants; and learn about the Chapel's role today as a Christian place of worship. A themed trail is provided.

Tudors

Henry VIII's final resting place

Guided tour of St George's Chapel

Links to History

Where did Catherine of Aragon say her prayers? Where is Henry VIII buried and with whom? Where can you see a portcullis beside red and white roses? Children find the answers to these and many other questions about Tudor history on this guided tour of the Chapel, which complements the talk on The Tudors at Windsor Castle.

Gothic splendour

Guided tour

This tour of St George's Chapel links to KS3 History, RE and cross-curricular studies and complements many of our talks. We focus on one or more of the following themes: the Order of the Garter, established at Windsor in medieval times; Henry VIII and Charles I, who are buried in the Chapel and whose reigns changed the religious and political landscape of their time; the role of the Chapel today as a Christian place of worship.
