

BECOMING A FRIEND

OF ST GEORGE'S CHAPEL,
WINDSOR CASTLE

What it Means to be a FRIEND OF ST GEORGE'S CHAPEL

St George's Chapel receives a share of visitor admission charges but extra funds are needed to meet day to day running and maintenance costs. Your support is therefore vital and would be much appreciated.

The Chapel is the heart of the College of St George, a fellowship of clergy and lay people founded in the fourteenth century. Neither the College nor the Chapel are the financial responsibility of the State, the Church or the Crown.

We need your help to support the life and work of this much valued place.

The Nave and its beautiful ceiling.

Become a Part of Our History

As a Friend of St George's Chapel you will be joining a worldwide community of over 5,000 people who have forged a personal link with this ancient and historic place of worship.

St George's Chapel dates from 1475 and is the burial place for ten Kings (including Henry VIII and Charles I) and also their Queen Consorts (including Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother).

YOUR SUPPORT IS VITAL

St George's Chapel receives a share of visitor admission charges but extra funds are needed to meet day to day running and maintenance costs. Your support is therefore vital and would be much appreciated.

By becoming a Friend you will be one of a distinguished list of benefactors who, over the centuries, have helped to preserve this glorious place of worship and cultural heritage for generations to come

The Chapel and The Friends' stand on Garter Day.

'A visit to St George's Chapel can be an occasion on which you stand in silence for a while, think about things spiritual and perhaps say a prayer. You may choose to join us at one of our services'

BECOME A PART OF OUR CONTINUING HISTORY

We encourage our Friends to support St George's Chapel and to contribute to its future.

In return your name will be inscribed in the Book of Honour on permanent display in the Chapel and, as marks of our appreciation for your commitment, we will offer you the following:

- A personal welcome certificate signed by the Dean of Windsor and a membership badge
- Free access to St George's Chapel and the precincts of Windsor Castle during opening hours
- Advance notice of many of the events in the Chapel, including concerts and exhibitions
- The full colour illustrated Annual Review which contains news from Friends throughout the world and articles on history and conservation of the buildings
- Special visits to the Chapel and to other places of historic interest (frequently with privileged access)
- Attendance at the Friends' Annual Meeting and the associated Gala Day
- The opportunity to apply for tickets to the historic Garter Day in June.
