

WINDSOR CASTLE

Search with St George St George's Chapel Trail

7

Look at the stonework around the doors for a clue

Look at these beautiful doors, painted in royal colours of red and gold.

Do you think the doors open inwards?

or

do they only open outwards?

8

You are nearly at the end of your visit to St George's Chapel, but before you go, see if you can find this statue. It might be in the gardens just by the shop, but look carefully!

What animal is St George fighting?

.....

All images supplied with permission and copyright of The Dean and Canons of Windsor.

Answers: 1. This is a font and babies are christened here. 2. There are 75 windows
3. GEORGE and ELIZABETH. The Queen's name is Elizabeth
4. The King buried here is Henry VIII and the Queen's special flag is the ROYAL
STANDARD. 5. Edward III's sword is 2 metres long. 6. The animal is a DOG
7. The doors only open outwards. 8. The animal that St George is fighting is a dragon

Find out more about learning opportunities at www.royalcollection.org.uk/learning

Learn about St George's Chapel at www.stgeorges-windsor.org

October 2014

For more information as you walk around please ask a Chapel Steward who will be happy to help you. Good luck!

1

As you enter the Chapel turn left and you will see something made of marble at the end of the aisle.

Do you know what this is called?

.....

What is it used for?

.....

2

Look at this beautiful West Window. There are people shown in lots of the small windows.

How many windows with people in them are there?

50 62 75 89

3

As you follow on around the Chapel, and go up some steps, look into the small Chapel on the left. Just behind the wrought iron railings what are the two names on the black stone on the floor?

G _ _ _ G _ and _ L _ _ _ _ T _

Do you know of someone that lives in the Castle sometimes who has the same lady's name?

4

In the Quire, where the black and white tiles are on the floor, what is the name of the King who is buried here with his favourite wife, Jane Seymour?

.....

What is The Queen's special flag called?

R _ Y _ L S _ _ N _ A _ D

Look for this seat where The Queen sits when she comes to the Chapel, look above and you will see her special flag. Henry VIII used to sit here too when he attended services over 500 years ago.

5

Look on the wall close to this portrait

Walk on from the Quire and look for this portrait. This is Edward III who lived in the Castle nearly 700 years ago. He fought many battles, and he is the King that set up the Knights of the Garter in 1348.

He is wearing the crown of England, and on his sword are the crowns of France and Scotland.

Can you see Edward III's sword?

How long do you think it is?

2 metres

1 metre

1.5 metres

6

It is not easy to see this tomb, but look carefully and see if you can spot an animal at one end guarding the two people.

What animal is it?

.....

